Rice Slope at Tegalalang, pause at Ubud Tegalalang Rice Terrace to take in the lush scenery of the terraced rice fields or to have lunch at the restaurant while taking in the breathtaking view of the rice terraces. This location is well-known for its beautiful rice terraces.

Traditional Balinese Welcome

The Traditional welcome at the Hotel. Balinese people follow a form of Hinduism known as Agama Hindu Dharma. Balinese culture and traditions and religion impacts almost every aspect of life on the island and draws people to Bali to see and experience it. An important belief of Balinese Hinduism is that elements of mother nature are influenced by spirit.

Day 02: Ubud Tour with Sacred Monkey Forest, Goa Gajah (Cave Temple), Aloha Ubud Swing, and Tegalalang Rice Terraces

The Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary, a Balinese Hindu site, is home to approximately 700 long-tailed Balinese macaques. The monkeys are thought to defend the area. Goa Gajah Temple, also known as the Elephant Cave Temple, is one of Bali's most sacred and intriguing attractions. It is a live temple where people still worship today, and it can be found in Bali's heartland in Ubud.

Tegalalang Rice Terraces

Tegalalang Rice Fields form the three most stunning-looking terraced landscapes in Ubud region. Rice Slope at Tegalalang, pause at Ubud Tegalalang Rice Terrace to take in the lush scenery of the terraced rice fields or to have lunch at the restaurant while taking in the breathtaking view of the rice terraces. Goa Gajah (Cave Temple)

Goa Gajah Temple, also known as the Elephant Cave Temple, is one of Bali's most sacred and intriguing attractions. It is a live temple where people still worship today, and it can be found in Bali's heartland in Ubud.

Sacred Monkey Forest

In Ubud, Bali, Indonesia, there is a nature reserve and temple complex called the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary. Another name for it is the Ubud Monkey Forest. More than 1260 long-tailed macaques, who are revered by the Balinese people in the area, call the Sanctuary home. The Pura Dalem Agung Padangtegal temple, a "Holy Spring" bathing temple.

Aloha Ubud Swing

The best swing in Tegallalang, with amazing views of rice paddies, agricultural activity, a coffee Luwak plantation, and a shop. Our Aloha Ubud Theme Park is about 5 kilometers from the Arjuna Statue in Ubud, on the way to Tegallalang and many other major tourist attractions, making it easy to combine with other tourist destinations.

DAY 03 : Bedugul Tour with Wanagiri View Point, Handara Gate, Beratan & Jatiluwih Rice Terraces

The magnificent Ulun Danu Temple is perched on a terrace overlooking Lake Beratan in Bali's highlands within the mountainous Bedugul Regency. The air is chilly and fresh here at 1,500 metres above sea level in the moderate mountain weather. The glistening clean lake is peaceful and nearly motionless, except for the gentle wind that blows across it from time to time, sending small ripples across the surface

Handara Gate

You've probably seen a few photos of Bali's most famous Instagram location, the Handara Gate, on social media. Everything you need to know about getting there, what to expect, getting the shot, and whether or not it's worth visiting is covered in depth. Landscape—the Subak system—which was nominated as a UNESCO World Heritage Site in June 2012.

Lake Bratan

Combine the culture and nature, visit the Ulun Danu Temple, learn about the local religion and capture stunning photos for your social media. Stroll at the famous. Stop by Beratan Temple, a tranquil water temple located on the banks of Lake Bratan. On this tour admire the stunning gardens of the Jatiluwi Rice Terraces, located in the centre of Tabanan Regency, are the most remarkable and picturesque rice fields in Bali.

Ulun Danu Temple

is situated near Baturiti, Tabanan. The location is at Petang Village, Plaga, close to Mt. Catur. It is gorgeously placed at an elevation of 1239 metres above sea level, making the area colder than most of Bali. The famous Ulun Danu Bratan temple, devoted to the goddess of the lake, Dewi Danu, is located on the western side of the lake.

Jatiluwh Rice Terraces

Jatiluwh, which is up for nomination as a UNESCO World Heritage site, provides a stunning view of rice terraces with contours that are irrigated by an amazing communal water system that was created by Balinese farmers. The trip is enhanced by the picturesque journey through the charming towns and lush hills of the Tabanan coastal region in central Philippines.

DAY 04 : Nusa Penida Full-Day West Tour & a Private 2-Way Ferry Ride, Crystal bay & Broken Beach

The western highlights of Nusa Penida are covered on this tour, which excludes the snorkelling session at Crystal Bay and includes famous sites like Kelingking Beach and Paluang Cliff as well as scenic spots like Broken Beach and Angel Billabong. After the mesmerising tour, have your stop to taste the delicacies of Indonesia. You will enjoy a scenic return boat trip from Sanur to Nusa Penida Village. You will then be able to explore Nusa Penida Village on a Car with a driver-cum-guide. Finish off your day by checking out Atuh Beach – perhaps the most stunning of locations on Nusa Penida.

Angel Billabong

Situated on the cliff edges in the southwest of Nusa Penida island, Angel's Billabong is a breathtaking rock structure. It's close to Pasih Uug, or Broken Beach, another well-liked location with interesting limestone formations. The craggy rock lagoon provides a picturesque view of the ocean. Only at low tide may you go down into its glistening granite pools for a swim or a soak. One of the things that tourists to Nusa Penida really must see is the rock pools.

Broken Beach (Pasih Uug)

Nusa Penida island's southwest corner features the picturesque Broken Beach (Pasih Uug). The area's distinctive landmark, a steep arch-shaped rock formation, marks the location. Travel photographers and anyone looking for sweeping views will love Broken Beach, which is situated above the thundering waves of the vast Indian Ocean. Grey long-tailed macaques are also found in the surrounding area. If you're lucky, you might be able to see enormous manta ray silhouettes close to the water's deep blue surface.

Kelingking Beach

On the southwest coast of the island of Nusa Penida, in the settlement of Bunga Mekar, is a secret beach called Kelingking Beach. From the summit of the hill with the same name, you can take in one of the most breathtaking vistas across the hills and narrow stretch of white sand. The view is of the deep blue waves of the open Indian Ocean set against a green-covered promontory of limestone.

Paluang Cliff

Paluang Cliff is situated between Kelingking Beach and Paluang Temple on the island of Nusa Penida. It is one of the destinations in Nusa Penida that offers views from a height. Because, its beauty is amazing and very pleasing to the eye. When on the cliff, you will feel comfort and calm. Apart from being a spot to watch the beauty of the sea and cliffs on the Nusa Penida Tour from the most beautiful angle, in Paluang Cliff you can also see the beauty of the sunset.

Atuh Beach

Atuh Beach, or Pantai Atuh, is a hidden beach on the remote south-eastern coast of Nusa Penida island. The beach is secluded by magnificent green cliffs, while various limestone rock formations surround it, adding to the beauty of the area. The white sand beach itself is accessible via a purpose-built stairway, or you can try the narrow tracks along a rugged cliff face if you're feeling adventurous. The beach is great for relaxing with a spectacular view. However, the waters aren't always swimmable.

Ferry Ride Sanur

The trip to Nusa Penida will only take 40 minutes from Sanur and 20 minutes from Kusamba. With a brand new fast boat terminal in Sanur, you can now board the boats in comfort, without having to worry about getting wet in the sea.

Day 05 : Full Day Tour of Watersports (Banana Boat, Jet Ski, Parasailing), Melasti Beach and Uluwatu Temple

Nusa Dua is a water sports paradise but walk-in prices can be high. Skip the haggling and relax on this door-to-door tour that takes in some of south Bali's best beaches plus cliff-top Uluwatu Temple. Begin with a Jet Ski, banana boat, melasti beach and parasailing session, then eat lunch and chill on Padang-Padang Beach. Inhale the views from Uluwatu Temple Temple

Banana Boat

The Bali Banana Boat Tour is a package deal for a speed boat tour that allows you to experience an inflatable recreational boat. One of the most amazing ways to experience the warm, blue saltwater is by taking a 15-minute boat ride on the Bali banana boat. Bali Water Sports Activities Are Fun. This banana boat game is a must-have if you enjoy playing water sports activities. It's best played in groups for maximum enjoyment and will undoubtedly provide an amazing experience.

Jet Ski

Riding an automated watercraft offers an exciting and unique experience with Bali Jet Ski Adventure. The maximum in water sport thrill is achieved by the jet ski's 700cc jet drive power, which allows it to accelerate effortlessly on the sea surface. When operating a jet ski in Tanjung Benoa, you will be provided with a life jacket and a qualified jet ski guide to assure your safety while navigating the Tanjung Benoa Sea. Just twist the throttle on the right side grip to accelerate the Jet Ski, and the gas-powered motor will shoot a jet stream of water out below.

Parasailing

In Ubud, Bali, Indonesia, there is a nature reserve and temple complex called the Sacred Monkey Forest Sanctuary. Another name for it is the Ubud Monkey Forest. More than 1260 long-tailed macaques, who are revered by the Balinese people in the area, call the Sanctuary home. The Pura Dalem Agung Padangtegal temple, a "Holy Spring" bathing temple, and another temple used for cremation rites are all located in the Monkey Forest.

Uluwatu Temple

One of the six major temples considered to be Bali's spiritual pillars, Uluwatu Temple (Pura Luhur Uluwatu) is well-known for its breathtaking setting, located atop a precipitous cliff about 70 metres above sea level. Tanah Lot Temple, another significant sea temple situated on the western coasts of the island, and this temple both have magnificent sunset backdrops.

Melasti Beach

At Bali's southernmost point, Melasti Beach (Pantai Melasti) is located in the Uluwatu area of the Bukit Peninsula. Huge limestone cliffs line the shore of this stunning white sand beach, which stretches over a kilometre. Melasti, which was formerly a remote hidden treasure, has seen significant development that has preserved its allure and beauty while making it one of Uluwatu's most accessible beaches.

DAY 06 : Gili Trawangan, Gili Meno, Gili Air Island Hopper Staycation with Ferry Transfers
